Little Bear woke up early. The sun was shining, and the forest called him to explore.

He packed his tiny backpack with honey cakes and set off happily down the path.

Near the tall oak tree, Little Bear met a shy rabbit nibbling on a carrot.

"Hello, Rabbit!" said Little Bear. "Will you come with me on my adventure?"

Rabbit nodded and hopped along beside Little Bear through the green forest.

Soon, they heard a splash. By the pond, a playful frog was jumping on lily pads.

"Hello, Frog! Want to join us?" Little Bear asked with a smile.

Frog croaked happily and leaped out of the water to welcome the new friends.

Together, the three friends walked deeper into the forest, laughing and sharing stories.

Suddenly, a bright blue bird sang a lovely tune from a nearby branch.

"Hi, Bird! Would you like to come too?" Little Bear called up cheerfully.

Bird flapped her wings and flew down to join the happy group.

As the sun began to set, the friends sat together under a big tree, feeling warm and joyful.

Little Bear smiled, glad for his wonderful new friends and their forest adventure.
